Henry and Alice: Into the Wild

Sept 15 - Oct 22, 2017, Andy Boss Thrust Stage by Michele Riml; American Premiere

The hilarious follow up to the smash hit Sexy Laundry! Your favorite married couple is back in the perfect, laugh-a-minute comedy. When Henry unexpectedly loses his job, he and Alice are thrown into a mid-life crisis and are forced to reconsider their dreams for a comfortable retirement. In an attempt to make the sparks fly again (and keep costs down), they forego their usual summer cottage for a humble campsite and a copy of Camping for Dummies. The new environment isn't the only challenge they face as they examine their relationship in the tangle of the wilderness.

William Shakespeare's Hamlet

Oct 13 - Nov 11, 2017, Proscenium Stage Adapted and Directed by Joel Sass; World Premiere Adaptation

Devastated by his father's death and disgusted by his mother's hasty marriage to his hated uncle, Denmark's Prince Hamlet has hit the rock bottom of despair. Now the ghost of his father appears, claiming the uncle murdered him - driving Hamlet to avenge a crime that may or may not be a product of his own imagining. Grand in scope, rich in language, this classic story of haunting, both literal and metaphorical, ranks among Shakespeare's finest masterpieces.

Of Mice and Men

Nov 9 - Dec 16, 2017, Proscenium Stage
By John Steinbeck; Directed by Annie Enneking;

Lennie and George are scraping to buy a home of their own. When Lennie stirs up trouble, George must choose between protecting his friend or staying the course towards the American dream. This new production, driven by music and the clashing cultures of Latino, white and black migrant workers, puts you in the gritty palm of the American spirit.

Dot

Dec 8, 2017 - Jan 7, 2018, Proscenium Stage
by Colman Domingo; Directed by E. G. Bailey; Midwest Premiere

For the holiday season, hot off its hit New York run, comes an uproariously funny new play from playwright/actor Colman Domingo (Wild With Happy /star of The Scottsboro Boys and Selma). Dotty and her three adult children are home for the holidays in West Philly, but this year there is more than presents and yuletide on their minds. While Dotty fights to maintain a grasp on her memory, brother and sisters collide in a riotous mid-life family brawl where losing your mind and losing your sanity are two different things.

Cardboard Piano

Jan 19 - Feb 18, 2018, Andy Boss Thrust Stage
by Hansol Jung; Directed by Signe V. Harriday; Midwest Premiere

Is our capacity for love greater than violence? In Northern Uganda, the daughter of an American missionary and a local teenage girl steal into a candlelit church to exchange vows in a secret wedding ceremony. But when an escalating civil war encroaches on their fragile union, they cannot escape its reach. Confronting the cost of intolerance, this powerful drama examines violence, the struggle to rebuild, as well as the human capacity for love and forgiveness. Audience Advisory: This play contains gunshots, strong language and adult content.

A Raisin in the Sun

Feb 22 - Mar 24, 2018, Andy Boss Thrust Stage
by Lorraine Hansberry; Directed by Warren C. Bowles

Back by popular demand for just six performances! This fiercely moving portrait of a family struggling with poverty, racism, and inner conflict as they strive for a better life was the first play written by an African-American woman to be produced on Broadway. It is about a family whose hopes and dreams are deferred until one day, the opportunity to move on up and out of Chicago's South Side to a wealthy white neighborhood provides that very real hope for the future the Younger family needs. "A sterling production at Park Square." - Star Tribune, 2016

The Diary of Anne Frank

April 19, 22, 26, 28, 2018, Proscenium Stage
by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett; Directed by Ellen Fenster

It has been 75 years since Anne Frank was given a diary by her father. Revisit this poignant classic yourself and share it with the young people in your life. You'll be inspired by the hope of a young girl who in the midst of the Holocaust could write: "In spite of everything I still believe that people are really good at heart...if I look up into the heavens, I think that it will all come right, that this cruelty too will end, and that peace and tranquility will return again."

Baskerville: A Sherlock Holmes Mystery

June 15 - Aug 5, 2018, Proscenium Stage

By Ken Ludwig; Directed by Theo Langason; Area Premiere

The game's afoot in this hilarious thriller that's anything but elementary! From the award-winning mastermind of mayhem, Ken Ludwig (Lend Me a Tenor), comes a fast-paced comedy about everyone's favorite detective solving his most notorious case. Five actors play over 40 comical characters, filling the stage with suspects, allies and heirs. When the wealthy Henry Baskerville is threatened by the fable of a bloodthirsty hound on the moors, Holmes and Watson are on the case to sniff out the culprit.
